

I am disappointed
to hear that Sinclair
Broadcasting will be forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

I feel that this is in violation of the FCC's fairness and equal time doctrines. Perhaps a fair application
of equal time might be to broadcast the anti- Kerry movie
one night, and
Michael Moore's
Fahrenheit 9/11 in the same timeslot
the next night.

Sinclair has a government subsidy
in the form of exclusive use of protected spectrum.
In return, Sinclair
must uphold the public interest.
Their ongoing actions make a mockery of the
public interest
portions of FCC
regulations.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
